

Claytor Lake Festival Set for June 7, 2008

The Annual Celebration at Claytor Lake State Park is set for June 7, 2008. Claytor Lake State Park is located in Dublin, Virginia. This is the festival's 11th year and promises to be the best one yet.

The festival committee has planned a wonderful day at the lake that includes arts and crafts vendors, food vendors, a wine tasting featuring Virginia Wines, a car show including antique cars, an antique vehicle show, antique fire trucks by Old Dominion Historical Fire Society, Yearout Fishing Tournament and Essay Contest, radio controlled cars and airplanes, children's activities, sand sculpture contest, Native American Demonstrations and the Red Fire Singers. The day's entertainment includes Bluegrass Star Dave Evans and the River Bend, the Billy Crawford Band, the Rock'n Cruisers and the Parking lot Grass. In addition, the grand finale: Fireworks at dark.

The festival begins at 10:00 a.m. and ends with fireworks at dark. Entertainment begins with a live radio remote by Cumulus Broadcasting and will continue until the fireworks begin and will resume for about 45 minutes after the fireworks show.

Entry to the Park is free, however there is a $5 parking fee. Shuttle service will be available from the Wal-Mart Parking lot in Dublin.

You may call 540-980-7363 for additional information or visit our website at facnrv.org.